Manolo Cagnin

Conductor

Born and raised in Treviso, Italy, Manolo Cagnin developed an interest in music early in life. As a child, he learned to play the violin and viola at the Conservatory of Venice, then later went on to study choral music, conducting and composition in Venice and Milan. He completed his studies in Leipzig under Kurt Masur and Fabio Luisi.

In Leipzig, Mr. Cagnin served as assistant to the Thomanerchor's artistic director, Georg Christoph Biller. He was music director of the Gewandhaus Orchestra's 2007 production of La Tragédie de Carmen.

In 2008, Mr. Cagnin was named conductor of one of the Vienna Boys Choir's four touring choirs. He has since led the choir on numerous tours, taking him several times around the world. In Vienna, Mr. Cagnin conducts the VBC's choral concerts, as well as the opera productions in the choir's own concert hall, MuTh. In addition, he prepares the boys for the sung services with the Vienna Chapel Imperial and for appearances with the Vienna State Opera and Volksoper, as well as for sound and video recordings. He regularly coaches the boys for performances with major orchestras, such as the Vienna Philharmonic and the Vienna Symphony, the Staatskapelle Dresden, and the Los Angeles Philharmonic, under the baton of conductors such as Mariss Jansons, Zubin Mehta, Riccardo Muti, and Michael Tilson Thomas.

Mr. Cagnin finds working with the boys particularly rewarding, "They possess character and spirit. This is reflected in the way they make music. The children learn from me, and I learn from them." Manolo Cagnin takes great care to match his choir's repertoire to the boys' personalities and voices.

A spirited and charismatic conductor, Mr. Cagnin feels it is vital to communicate with the audience, "Music is a gift. As musicians, we have the obligation to share it. When you listen to us, we want to put a smile on your face."

VIENNA BOYS CHOIR

Biography

The Vienna Boys Choir is one of the most famous choirs in the world, and one of its oldest, boys have been singing at Vienna's Imperial Chapel at least since 1296. Two hundred years later, on July 7, 1498, Holy Roman Emperor Maximilian I. established a Court Chapel in Vienna. He gave specific instructions that there were to be boys among the singers, thus laying the foundation for the Vienna Boys Choir. Like their modern successors, the Early modern boys spent much time on the road, following their imperial employer to sing at the Holy Roman Empire's parliamentary meetings, imperial coronations, weddings, state processions, and feasts.

Over the centuries, the Viennese court attracted musical geniuses like Heinrich Isaac, Johann Joseph Fux, and Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. Composers Joseph Haydn, Michael Haydn, and Franz Schubert sang as boys with the choir; Anton Bruckner gave them singing and piano lessons.

Today, the former imperial ensemble has grown into an entire campus; the modern Vienna Boys Choir is a private, non-profit organization which funds itself chiefly through income generated from concerts and touring, as well as donations and sponsorship deals. The Vienna Boys Choir maintains a primary school and a grammar school whose syllabuses focus on choral music and singing. 330 boys and girls between the ages of six and nineteen attend the schools on campus. All students have individual voice lessons, and all sing in one of the choirs. In addition to the four famous boys' choirs, there is a female counterpart—the Vienna Girls Choir (Wiener Chormädchen) for girls aged 10 to 14, as well as the Chorus Primus, a mixed children's chorus comprised of all boys and girls enrolled in the 4th grade of the choir's primary school, and the Chorus Juventus, the mixed youth choir of the Senior High School. The Vienna Boys Choir's education, listed by UNESCO as cultural heritage, is open to all, regardless of origin, gender, nationality, or religion.

There are currently 90 active boy choristers, divided into four boys' choirs, which all perform as "Vienna Boys Choir"; Brucknerchor (Choirmaster Manolo Cagnin), Haydnchor (Choirmaster Jimmy Chiang), Mozartchor (Choirmaster Manuel Huber), and Schubertchor (Choirmaster Oliver Stech). The four choirs share concerts, tours, sound recordings and filming equally. Between them, they perform almost 300 concerts per year, with almost half a million people attending. Since 1924, the choirs have completed more than 1000 tours in 100 different countries, clocking up a staggering 29,000 concerts.

On Sundays, the choirs take turns singing mass in Vienna's Imperial Chapel, joining forces with members of the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra and the men's chorus of the Vienna State Opera. They frequently participate in large-scale symphonic concerts, performing under conductors like Joana Mallwitz, Zubin Mehta, Riccardo Muti, Christian Thielemann, Simone Young, Franz Welser-Möst. Other highlights in the choirs' calendars are appearances at the Salzburg Festival and at the New Year's Concert of the Vienna Philharmonic.

The Vienna Boys Choir cooperates with several other charities, such as UNICEF, "Licht ins Dunkel" (Light into Darkness, an Austrian charity), and die moewe Child protection agency. Together with Caritas and the Vienna Konzerthaus, the Choir founded "superar", an outreach program offering children access to free music education. In addition, the Vienna Boys Choir runs Chorus amabilis, a choir for adult singing enthusiasts, aimed particularly at pensioners.

In 2023, the Choir celebrated its 525th anniversary. To mark the occasion, Deutsche Grammophon released a live album of the anniversary concert in Vienna's Musikverein, Decca Classics released a box set of 21 CDs featuring the Choir's landmark recordings, and academic publishing house Böhlau released a book on the Choir's rich history. In 2024, the Vienna Boys Choir and the Vienna Girls Choir jointly received the European Culture Award.

Erasmus Baumgartner has been serving as Artistic Director of the Vienna Boys Choir and the entire Campus Augarten since the fall of 2023. The Choir's President is Erich Arthold.
